Konica Minolta Earns MSCI's Top AAA ESG Rating for the First Time

Tokyo (May 18, 2026) - Konica Minolta, Inc. (Konica Minolta) today announced that the Company earned the highest possible rating of AAA in the 2026 MSCI ESG Ratings for the first time.

MSCI ESG Ratings is an ESG rating system provided by MSCI, an international financial services company in the U.S. It analyzes the extent to which financially relevant sustainability risks and opportunities are managed in respective industries based on a seven-point rating scale from AAA to CCC.

Konica Minolta gains insight into social and environmental issues that are anticipated in the medium to long term and identifies material issues to be addressed, in order to solve these issues through value creation and achieve corporate growth.

In the latest ratings, Konica Minolta was highly regarded for its initiatives in the fields of human capital development and supply chain labor standards, leading to the Company earning the highest rating of AAA for the first time.

Konica Minolta remains committed to addressing social and environmental issues through its business and contributing to realizing a sustainable society while achieving corporate growth.
