

KONICA MINOLTA

News Release

Notice Regarding Fire at Konica Minolta Supplies Manufacturing's Tatsuno Factory

Tokyo (July 7, 2021) – Around 6pm on July 6, a fire broke out at Tatsuno Factory of Konica Minolta Supplies Manufacturing Co., Ltd., a Konica Minolta Group company. The factory is located in Tatsuno, Nagano Prefecture. We would like to give our sincerest apologies to residents in neighboring communities, relevant authorities and all those for the trouble. Below is the status as of 10pm, July 6. We will keep posting updates.

1. Address of the factory
4333-1, Oaza Inatomi Aza Shiromae, Tatsuno, Kamiina-gun, Nagano Prefecture
2. Occurrence of fire
Around 5:50pm, sound of explosion was heard and a fire from production line was confirmed.
Around 6:00pm, firefighters started working on the fire.
At 8:40, firefighters confirmed the fire was fully extinguished.
3. Damages
There was no injury or casualty. Physical damages on the facility is being assessed.
4. Cause
The relevant authorities are currently investigating the cause.
5. Effects on production and shipment
Effects on production and shipment are being assessed.

The Konica Minolta Group sincerely addresses the incident and works on securing safety in the area. Cooperating with the local fire department, police department and relevant authorities, we will thoroughly investigate the cause and work to prevent the recurrence.

Overview of Tatsuno Factory

- Operation started in 2007
- Production items: toner for multi-functional peripherals (MFPs) and other equipment
- Ground area: 46,641 square meters
- Number of employees: 44

###